Sherwood Auditorium -MCASD
700 Prospect St, La Jolla, California 92037

Lito and Celino Romero are the youngest members of the renowned Romero Quartet, whose illustrious career is unmistakably a milestone of twentieth century music. Celedonio Romero, with his sons Celin, Pepe and Angel, founded the internationally renowned ensemble known to millions as "The Royal Family of the Guitar." The Romeros encompass three generations.

Besides their busy concert schedule as members of the Romeros, Celino and Lito have starring roles in the KPBS/PBS biographical documentary "Los Romeros: The Royal Family of the Guitar."

Both proud to carry on the tradition, Lito and Celino display the virtuosity synonymous with the name Romero. To have so many virtuosi of the same instrument in one family is unique in the music world, and in the realm of the classical guitar it is absolutely without precedent. The New York Times has said: "Collectively, they are the only classical guitar quartet of real stature in the world today; in fact, they virtually invented the format."

In addition, hear nationally recognized pianists Steven Aguilo-Arbues (BECA Scholar & Alumnus) and Joseph Li in a rare occasion performing two-piano works by Poulenc, Infante and Piazzolla. The virtuosi duo are graduates of the Manhattan School of Music with Masters and Professional Studies Degrees. Mr. Aguilo-Arbues has given recitals across the United States, Peru, Spain and at the Centro Studi Lirica Program in Italy. Mr. Li has also performed around the USA and has recently joined the Houston Grand Opera Young Artists Program.
